organized by Travel Sketch Love
Art Courses in India

Travel Sketch Love is your gateway to discovering India's rich art and culture. Our painting holidays and courses are designed to help you explore India's beautiful locations while enhancing your art skills. Guided by expert art masters and mentors, you will experience the best of travel and immerse yourself in the local heritage and traditions of India. Join us and make unforgettable memories with like-minded artists from around the world!

COMPONENTS

Tuition

Andy will be teaching how to approach urban landscapes and cityscapes and simplify them to create beautiful compositions. He will teach how to use correct values while painting that will help in understanding depth, perspective and result in better paintings.

Atmosphere

You will be getting step-by-step guidance in both studio and plein-air settings for maximum understanding. Enjoy the company of other watercolor lovers as you travel and explore Jaipur. Paint this beautiful city along with participants from around the world with exchange of ideas and techniques. Enjoy famous Indian cuisines, our vibrant music, dances and cultural activities.

Logistics

If you are on our accommodation plan, you get airport transfers and all ground transport during our stay. Travel will be together in luxury buses. If you are on the non-accommodation plan, we still take care of your travel in the day between plain-air spots. We have picked the most attractive, historical and paintable spots for you to enjoy.

SHOULD NON PAINTING PARTNERS JOIN?

YES! We encourage you to bring along a partner or a friend. We have a great price for non-painting tag-alongs! Within the small cost of $500, they get to travel along with us on all the sites we visit. The accomodation and food included for the artists is also offered to the non-painting partners!

IN ADDITION: we want them to enjoy to the fullest, so if they want to do extra explorations and site-seeing, we will be happy to arrange the excursions on actual costs which can be planned both as a group or individual basis!
